V.

KECIA WINCHESTER
TASC OFFICER HEATHER NLN,
STATE OF DELAWARE,
JANE DOE and
JANE DOE
Defendants

Civ. No. 07-756-SLR

PO scanned

1. As I the Plaintiff Joseph L. Bolden, I describe this lawsuit and present time incarcerated as a nightmare.
2. The defendants named up top are correct, adding that the State of Delaware, Department of Corrections put on extra pressure, pain and suffering.
3. All I had to do was to get my medical and treatment information from my last treatment facility at Meadow Wood Behavioral Center, in March 07.
4. Probation & TASC was also aware of this treatment.
5. The morning that I went to Court in Dover,

They gave me no notice.

6. So far I have spent a period of eight months incarcerated, not hearing anything about when I would be moved.

7. KECIA WINCHESTER had other members of her staff bring me here to DCE. Getting their names will need to be looked into. Right now their JANE DOE and Jane DOE.

8. KECIA WINCHESTER never gave me a drug test the day I was incarcerated, she just got them to bring me to jail, her stuff.

9. I have been clean for 3 weeks.

10. One good point I have is that Probation & Tasc did not do anything that did secure me with treatment when I was here.

11. She told members of the Court that I had missed an appointment. And I had been coming seeing her all the long. I happened to be late coming to see her one week, I had call her and told her where I was.

12. I feel she had no reason to do what she done to me.

13. Six Month Statement on the way.

14. Will have more information within 30 Days.
